

War Horse

Saturday 27th January

War Horse, Brighton Centre

Depart Oxted 11.00am (Route A) for Brighton, giving time to find lunch before making your way to the Brighton Centre for the 2.30pm performance of the National Theatre's acclaimed play War Horse. At the outbreak of World War One, Joey, young Albert's treasured horse, is sold to the Cavalry and shipped to France. He's soon caught up in enemy fire, and fate takes him on an extraordinary journey, serving on both sides before finding himself alone in no man's land. Albert also remained on his parents' Devon farm, cannot forget Joey. Though still not old enough to enlist he embarks on a heroic mission to find him and bring him home. Based on the beloved novel by Michael Morpurgo, this powerful, moving and imaginative production filled with stirring music and songs, is a show of phenomenal inventiveness that takes audiences' lives and horses by South Africa's Handspring Puppet Company who bring breathing, galloping, charging horses to thrilling life on stage. War Horse is an unforgettable theatrical event which takes audiences on an extraordinary journey from the fields of rural Devon to the trenches of First World War France. Refreshments available. Return after performance. Arriving back in Godstone approx. 6.30pm.

Cost £57.95

(Inclusive of Coach/South Balcony Seats at Show)

DAY EXCURSIONS 2018

Tuesday 6th February

British Motor Museum & The Guide Dogs National Breeding Centre

Depart Oxted 7.30am (Route A) for the drive to the British Motor Museum at Gaydon (formerly the Heritage Motor Centre), the world's largest collection of historic British cars. Immerse yourself in the fascinating story of Britain's motor industry – the designers, the factories, the workers, the cars, the publicity and the drivers. See the Collections Centre, a 4500m² store, housing around 250 cars from the reserve collections of the British Motor Industry Heritage Trust and the Jaguar Heritage Trust: a true 'behind the scenes' experience where you can see how they store, and restore, the car collections. Early afternoon, we make the short journey to the Guide Dogs National Breeding Centre for our 2-hour tour of the Visitors' Centre, where you will view some guide dog puppies playing and socialising through special viewing windows, meet some guide dog breeding stock, and learn about the life-changing work carried out there. Your tour will be hosted by a team of dedicated tour guides, who will accompany you throughout. You will also have an opportunity to take our Sensory Tunnel experience. Finish off your tour with refreshments and a visit to the gift shop, which also sells dog products. Restaurant available at British Motor Museum. Return leave 4.30pm, arriving back in Godstone approx. 7.00pm.

Adult £44.95 • Child £34.75

*(Inclusive of Coach/Entry to British Motor Museum/Donation to Breeding Centre)
(Please note the Guide Dogs National Breeding Centre Tour is free of charge, however Guide Dogs welcome donations from visitors on the day)*

Newbury & Snowdrops at Welford Park

Depart Oxted 9.30am (Route A) for the journey to Newbury. Famous for its racecourse and 2 Civil Wars, now there is a pedestrianised high street, with a good mix of well-known high street names and local independents, including the award winning Camp Hopson department store; Parkway, an open street development in the heart of the town which features more than 50 shops and kiosks that has turned Newbury into one of the best places to shop in central southern England and lots of cafes and restaurants. Early afternoon we make our way to Welford Park, the site of a monastery until the dissolution in 1536, when King Henry VIII kept Welford as his own deer hunting lodge. Today Welford is famous as the home of the Great British Bake Off and for its display of snowdrops across the 7-acre woodland site adjacent to the River Lambourn. The soil is perfect for snowdrops to prosper and in the days of the monastery the monks were known to propagate them both for decoration at the Feast of Candlemas and also for medicinal purposes. A cup of tea/coffee in the tearoom is included. Return leave 4.00pm, arriving back at Godstone approx. 6.00pm.

Adult £33.85

Child £21.35

(Inclusive of Coach/Entry to Welford Park/Cup of Tea/Coffee)
